

On Sunday February 19th 2017 the Pike County Chamber of Commerce held one of its annual Comedy's Shows at the Best Western Inn at Hunts Landing. This event drew in more than 350 people from all over the place. The show was supposed to be held on February 12th but due to weather we had to use our snow date, but that didn't stop people from coming out the following week! We had 2 outstanding comedians at this event, Tom Daddario and Vic Dibiettido. Tom Daddario was our warm act who prepped the audience for a show that you wouldn't want to miss from Vic. Vic performed for about an hour and during that hour he made peoples stomach's hurt from laughing so hard. The Pike County Chamber of Commerce is thrilled to be able to put on comedy shows at least once a year for the community especially during the winter seasons when you're looking to get out and do something. We thank the business community and the people of Pike County and the surrounding areas for their support.
